RE: Hearing on Election Contest

The Tribal Council held a hearing on an election contest on December 6, 2023 and made the decision to void the election and to hold a new election. The Tribal Council followed the Election Ordinance's contest procedures in making this decision. Under those procedures, the Council heard from the person contesting the election and the Election Board. Those were the parties that were involved in the matter. The Tribal Council then passed a motion to void the election and call for a new election following the same procedures stated in the Election Ordinance. This decision by the Tribal Council is final and the Tribe will proceed with the new election.

Sincerely,
